3. You will need to take the URL you just copied and modify it to include information about Lakeland's system for password authentication (EZproxy system).

   EZproxy URL(the same for each article) + article URL (changes with each article) = linking URL

    EZproxy URL is http://library.lakeland.edu:2048/login?url=

    URL for Historical Methods and the Little Bighorn article is http://www/jstor.org/stable/494467

    The link that will be pasted into Blackboard is http://library.lakeland.edu:2048/login?url= http://www/jstor.org/stable/494467

4. Go to Blackboard. Access your course. Under Build Content, select Web Link and paste the newly created URL. Under options, be sure to check Open in New Window.

5. Although adding a link as described in #4 is the recommended method, links can be added into text by using the hyperlink feature. Remember to select Open in New Window. Be sure to check your link.
