Library Resources for Psychology

Finding Books Cont'd.

WorldCat

www.WorldCat.org is the world's largest catalog. If you find an item, you can fill out an interlibrary loan request (see below). Books requested through ILL are picked up and returned to the John Esch Library on the Sheboygan campus.

Interlibrary Loan Request

Can't find the book or article you need? Perhaps, you've found a citation or abstract but can't access the full text article. Use the library's interlibrary loan services. Library staff will contact libraries throughout the country to request a copy for you.

To complete a form go to lakeland.edu/library. Under services, select interlibrary loan. Those items available in the Lakeland Library usually will be sent the next day. Articles from other libraries vary in delivery time from a couple days to two weeks. Please plan accordingly.

Articles can be delivered via email; books must be picked up and returned at the John Esch Library on the Sheboygan campus. You will be notified of their arrival.
